TIM'S WALKER OF THE WEEK

Last week's Walker of the Week was Jared Tallent for his second successive Olympic 50km silver medal, recording a 2+ minute PB time of 3:36:53 and breaking the Olympic record into the bargain. What a performance! Walker of the Week!

This week's Walker of the Week is another easy one - Lyn Ventris for her W55 World Best time of 49:15, done last Sunday in Perth. It is now the fourth time Lyn has rewritten this record. She set the original record at the Australian Masters Games Adelaide in October last year with 50.32. She then broke it again at the World Masters Indoor Championships in Finland in April with 49.59. She then broke it again on July 15 in Perth with 49.34 and then last Sunday she bettered it again with a time of 49.15. Wow!!!!!

VRWC ROAD RACES, MIDDLE PARK, SATURDAY 18 AUGUST

It was great to be back at the weekly VRWC racewalks on Saturday after 5 weeks overseas but not so great to be thrown back into the throes of a cold Melbourne winter. With an Antarctic blast producing cold wind and rain on Friday evening and Saturday morning, the numbers at Middle Park were understandably small (only 35!). But lo and behold, the rain stopped, the sun came out for a while and walkers had pretty good conditions for racing. We even saw some PBs as our walkers had their last chance for a hitout before next weekend's Australian roadwalk champs in Adelaide. Thanks to Sabrina George for the photos - you can check them all out on our photo gallery at http://www.vrwc.org.au/coppermine/

And now to the races. In the 10km event, Emily Hamilton equalled her best to win the women's event with 1:00:46 ahead of Donna Elms 1:03:21 while Simon Evans continued his good form with 50:03. And how about Bob Gardiner with 1:02:32 at 76 years of age and Cody McNicol-Davidson with a 2 min PB of 1:07:10.

Special mentions also to the Walmsley brothers who both walked PBs with Reese 24:52 (first time under 25 mins) and 11 year old Hayden 33:03 and to Catherine Rutherford who walked a very impressive 30:29 in her first walk with the club. Alas, Shelby Kay was our only U15 finisher but with a good 16:26.

WARWC ROUNDUP

Thanks to Terry Jones for bringing me up to date with this month's Western Australian Race Walking Club results from Perth. He explains: Attached are the final WA walks results for all of August. Our walks season finished today, with the national events next weekend, and our City to Surf on the following weekend.

The highlight had to be the W55 World Best time of 49:15, done by Lyn Ventris, done on Sunday. It is now the fourth time Lyn has rewritten this record. She set the original record at the Australian Masters Games Adelaide in October last year with 50.32. She then broke it again at the World Masters Indoor Championships in Finland in April with 49.59. She then broke it again on July 15 in Perth with 49.34 and then last Sunday she improved it further to 49.15. Wow!!!!!

BEKI LEE'S BIG NEWS

As if walking in the Olympic 20km women's event and doing a big PB wasn't enough excitement for one day, Australian representative Beki Lee found the occasion even bigger than she had expected as the following front page news item shows:

Yes, it made front page news in Australia when partner Dan Smith proposed to her in the Mall straight after the race. It was well reported with lots of photos by News Limited (see http://www.news.com.au/sport/london-olympics/boyfriend-proposes-to-australian-athlete-beki-lee-in-pall-mall/story-fndpu6dv-1226448873999). Here's how it reads:

Will you marry me ... Australia's Beki Lee is proposed to by her boyfriend, Dan Smith, after the 20km race walk.

WHEN Daniel Smith dropped to one knee in front of Beki Lee in Pall Mall, the Australian athlete might have suspected her boyfriend was showing theatrical respect for her personal best performance in the 20km walk. Smith, who travelled to London for the Olympics with his brother Brendan, instead proposed to Lee in front of a clapping crowd and managed to take Lee completely by surprise. She immediately accepted after he produced a silver ring he had kept buried in a pocket on a long day.

"I'm over the moon. What a day," Lee beamed. "I had no idea, none, what a surprise. It's topped off a wonderful day. I'll never forget this one ever. I'm lost for words. We can go on a break as an engaged couple."

Smith and Lee, who have been together for five years, will travel to Paris to reflect on a heady 24 hours.

"The main thing is she said 'Yes'," Smith said. "Her race, she'd done a PB, so everything went well. We've been through this journey together and I thought the best place to propose was at the Olympics."

Lee finished 28th behind Russian Elena Lashanova in a time almost a minute faster than her personal best.

OLYMPIC ADDENDUMS

A few final Olympic items to complete last week's report.

- First to a YouTube video of the Olympic Women's 20km walk. It shows every lap as seen from the monument in the Mall and shows very competitor as they pass that point each lap. It highlights just much much ground the chasing pair made up on Kaniskina in the last couple of laps: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=spSJtszHoEU
- And now going back 52 years to the 1960 Olympics to another YouTube video that Stuart Cooper has let me know about. It shows the finish of the 20km race, won by Russian walking legend Volodymyr Golubnichiy, just 9 secs ahead of Australian Noel Freeman. Australia had to wait another 48 years before our next walks silver medal (Jared Tallent in the 2008 50km) and he has done it again in 2012 with more silverware. Here's the link: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rOBco_jJuNw

If you want to read more about Golubnichiy or Freeman, here are my articles from the VRWC archives:

Next, South African photographer Henning Rass has uploaded two albums of 2012 Olympic photos to the Racewalkers of the World Facebook page and there are some great snaps there. Check them out:

And now to the Olympic Closing Ceremony when AIS Chief Walks Coach Brent Vallance was caught by the cameras with his Olympic squad of 5 walkers - Jared and Claire Tallent, Beki Lee, Regan Lamble and Chris Erickson - not a bad squad!

And one final photo from the same shoot - VRWC club members Regan Lamble and Chris Erickson (Jared Tallent is also a VRWC club member).

WORTH A READ

We don't see too many many autobiographies of walkers so check out "Money Walks" by Chris Maddocks, the only man in British Athletics to have competed at five Olympic Games. Achieved on a shoestring budget, he reveals what made him try so hard and how he made it: http://www.racewalkuk.com/Book/

FALLS CREEK CAMP ON AGAIN THIS DEC/JANUARY

Simon Baker has announced the next Falls Creek camp. His brief facebook entry reads

The Falls creek training camp will be from 29 December this year.
