TIM'S TOP TEN MEN FOR 2016

There is only one race on which to report this week but, being the end of the year, it is time to review the year with my Top Ten and with my national ranking lists. Men this week and women next week.

Without further adfo, I kick off with my Top Ten Australian Men for 2016 As usual, our top international walkers top the bill but there are a few new faces further down the list. These are very much my own individual picks based on a combination of absolute quality, consistency across the year and improvement relative to past years. Of course, your picks might differ. Anyway, read on. As always, it was a very tough task.

1. Jared Tallent (SA)

For what I think is the 9^{th} year in a row, 32 year old Jared Tallent is my male Australian Walker of the Year. You just can't go past gold in the World Racewalking Team Championships 50km in Rome in May (3:42:46) and silver in the Olympic 50km in Rio (3:41:16). To top if off, Jared finished 2^{nd} in the 2016 IAAF World Racewalking Challenge Series. A very selective racer but always at his peak when it counts.

2. Dane Bird-Smith (QLD)

24 year old Dane Bird-Smith had another stellar year that would have seen him top the rankings in just about any country in the world except for here. He set a new Australian record for the 5000m track (18:38.97), won the Australian 10,000m track championship (38:44.61) and the summer 20km roadwalk championship (1:20:04) before taking 4th place in the World Racewalking Team Championships 20km in Rome (1:19:38) and bronze in the Olympic 20km in Rio (1:19:37). He then capped his year with two seconds and two firsts to win overall in the 4 Day Lake Taihi Challenge in China. Finally, he finished 5th in the 2016 IAAF World Racewalking Challenge Series, a reflection on his great year overall.

3. Chris Erickson (VIC)

35 year old Chris Erickson raced sparingly but, like Jared, produced it when it counted. Wins in the Victorian 10km (41:03) and 20km championships and his first ever win in the LBG 20 Mile Championship in his 13th start (a PB 2:19:51) capped off a good warmup for the Olympics. In Rio, he walked his finest ever race, coming 10th in the 50km with a PB 3:48:40, showing that he is still improving at 35 years of age.

4. Rhydian Cowley (VIC)

25 year old Rhydian Cowley forced his way into the Olympic team with a PB 1:22:07 in the Australian Summer 20km Championship in Adelaide in February. Some fast 5000m track races (19:43.53 and 19:26.76) followed as his final warmup before the World Racewalking Team Championships in Rome (39^{th} in 1:23:21). He then backed this up with another good race in the Rio Olympics (33^{rd} in 1:23:30).

5. Tyler Jones (NSW)

18 year old Tyler Jones started his year with a PB win (42:22) in the Oceania U20 10km walk at the Australian Summer 20km Championships in Adelaide in February. An unfortunate disqualification in the Australain U20 10000m track championship in Perth in March put him in a difficult position re selections but he bounced back with silver in the Australian Open 10,0000m championship in Sydney in April (43:39). He raced to 40th place (45:40) in the World Teams Champs in May in Rome but bounced back with 2 excellent races in the LBG Carnival in Canberra in June - 2nd in the Open 10 Miles with 1:10:30 and gold in the U20 10km with 45:05. Everything came together for a superb race in the World Junior Championships in Poland in July (a PB 42:02.96 for 10th in the U20 10,000m walk). He won the Australian U20 10km championship in August in Canberra (44:44) and capped off an excellent year with his first ever 20km in December, finishing 3rd at Fawkner Park in Melbourne with 1:30:12.

6. Adam Garganis (VIC)

19 year old Adam Garganis was one of our hardest working walkers for the year, amassing 42 races in total. But it was not a case of quantity only as the quality was there for all to see. A series of excellent races last summer (3rd in the Oceania U20 10km with 42:53, 5000m times of 21:25, 21:35 and 21:25 and a win in the Australian U20 10,000m championship (43:13.24) earned him spots in the Australian teams for the World Teams Championships and the World Junior Championships. He rose to the challenge in the World Teams Championships in Rome in May, finishing 14th in a PB 42:24. A superb win the LBG Carnival Open 10 Miles (a PB and course record of 1:09:51) was followed by a PB 42:22..96 for 16th in the World Junior Championships in Poland. He rounded off his winter with his first ever senior title, winning the Australian Winter 20km championship in Canberra in August (1:34:23). All in all, a great year.

7. Declan Tingay (WA)

17 year old Declan Tingay started off the year strongly with gold in the Australian U18 5000m Championship (PB 20:43.45) and silver in the Australian U20 10,000m Championship (44:10.11) in March in Perth. He then disappeared to complete his final year of secondary school, reappearing in October and quickly building back into top racing form. He finished off his year much as he had started it, with a wonderful December which included a PB win in the Australian Schools U18 5000m championship (20:11.80) along with two Australian U18 best performances – 10km in 42:36 and 3000m in 11:40.32.

8. Kyle Swan (VIC)

17 year old Kyle Swan started his year with two very important second places. In February, he was second in the Oceania U20 10km walk at the Australian Summer 20km Championships in Adelaide (PB 42:48), thus cementing a spot in the World Racewalking Teams Championships team. He then took silver behind Declan Tingay in the Australian U18 5000m Championship (PB 20:51.32) in Perth in March. He followed this up with 32nd (44:07) in the World Teams Champs in May in Rome. He did a big double at the LBG carnival in June, taking bronze in the Open 10 Miles (1:15:35) and winning the U18 5km (23:00). He finished his winter with a win in the Australian U18 10km road championship (45:44) in August in Canberra. He finished his year with a fine second to Declan Tingay in the Australian Schools U18 5000m in December in Canberra (22:00.76).

9. Andrew Jamieson (VIC)

70 year old Andrew Jamieson continues to lead the way amongst our masters walkers. Graduating to the M70-74 age category in June of this year, he has wasted no time in making his presence felt, setting new records for 5000m (26:42.1), 10km (53:17) and 20km (1:57:55). He also won gold in all three M70 events at the World Masters Championships in Perth in October – 5000m (26:42), 10km (53:37) and 20km (2:01:29). Andrew continues to amaze with times that would do credit to our younger walkers.

10. Brendon Reading (ACT)

27 year old Brendon Reading has to be in the top 10 mix, given his selection in the Rio Olympic 50km, yet overall it was not amongst his best years. A niggling injury hampered his walk in the World Teams Championships 20km in Rome in May and he could only manage 94th with 1:32:32. His Olympic 50km was also done on a less than optimal preparation as he struggled to 50th in the 50km with 4:13:02. But over the last few months, he seems to have returned to more consistent form, clocking up fast track times for 1500m (5:53), 3000m (12:16) and 5000m (22:50).

It was tough to rank the men this year as so little separated many of the choices. I also reviewed a number of other walkers such as Dylan Richardson (NSW), Connor Frew (ACT), Mitchell Baker (ACT) and Nikola Mandic (VIC) but felt the others pipped them for spots in the top ten.

WHAT'S COMING UP

All competition has now finished for the year. Athletics Victoria Shield restarts on Saturday 7th January with Round 10. I hope everyone is enjoying the break and sneaking in a few training sessions in these hot summer days.

OUT AND ABOUT

- Paul Warburton reviews the last 12 months in the world of racewalking https://www.iaaf.org/news/news/race-walks-2016-review.
- Russia has now lost the biathlon and speedskating events it was due to host this winter following allegations it ran a vast state-sponsored doping scheme. Russian biathlon officials voluntarily gave up their rights to host a World Cup round at Tyumen in March and the world junior championships in Ostrov, due to start late February. It was "impossible" to hold the events in the circumstances, the Russian Biathlon Union said. And the International Skating Union said it was stripping the Russian city of Chelyabinsk of the final round of this season's World Cup because, following McLaren's report, "the focus of the event would not be on the sport but rather accusations and controversies." See http://www.kiro7.com/news/russia-loses-biathlon-skating-events-over-doping/478178483.
- Twenty eight Russian competitors face disciplinary proceedings after their urine samples from the 2014 Winter Olympics were allegedly manipulated. See http://www.bbc.com/sport/athletics/38415869.
- Vladimir Mokhnev, the former coach of Russian whistleblower Yuliya Stepanova was hit with a 10-year ban for doping-related offences on Friday, the Court of Arbitration for Sport announced. He was found to have violated IAAF rules "relating to possession, trafficking and administration of banned substances", CAS said in a statement. Middle-distance runner Anastasiya Bazdyreva, 24, also received a two-year suspension, backdated to August 2015, for "use or attempted use...of a prohibited substance or a prohibited method". ANOTHER RACEWALK STAMP IS FOUND

Thanks to Margaret and Ian Beaumont for alerting me to the release earlier this year of another racewalking related postage stamp (and even getting me a copy of the full set) from the Isle of Man Post Office. The set of four Team GB stamps was released on 23 rd May in recognition of their participation in the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. The four £1.27 stamps showcase swimming, track cycling, race walking and gymnastics which at London 2012, bought Team GB a combined medal haul of 16. See more information about the product release at: https://www.iompost.com/stamps-coins/collection/team-gb-rio-2016-olympics/team-gb-rio-2016-olympics-set/#sthash.2mRmcz5i.dpuf.

As far as we know, this is the only racewalking stamp which celebrates the 2016 Olympic Games. All the stamps found thus far can be viewed at http://www.vrwc.org.au/vrwcstamps.shtml.

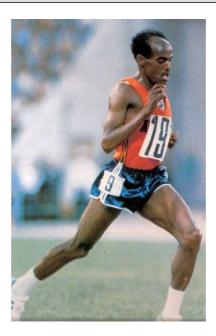

VALE MIRUTS YIFTER

I was saddened to hear that Miruts Yifter, the double Olympic champion for Ethiopia (5000m/10,000m) at the 1980 Olympic Games, died on Friday 22 December in Toronto, Canada, after being hospitalised for respiratory ailments. Yifter was considered by many as the greatest middle distance runners of all-time. See http://www.athleticsweekly.com/featured/miruts-yifter-the-shifter-dies-54795.

To get an idea of Yifter's explosive finishing speed, you have only to look at the videos from his 1980 Olympic wins

10,000m run - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JrZpT-LXO-8 5000m run - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HL0wGobeKZ4

Quite a few runners have won the Olympic 5000m/10,000m double – Emile Zatopek (1952), Vladimir Kuts (1956), Lasse Viren (1972 and 1976), Kenenisa Bekele (2008) and Mo Farah (2012 and 2016) – but in my opinion, Yifter stands alone at the top. Denied his chance for gold in the 1976 Olympics (when Ethiopia boycotted), he had to wait until 1980 when in the twilight of his career (his actual age was a matter of conjecture).

In the final of the 10,000 m he sprinted into the lead 300m from the finish and won by ten metres. Five days later, in the 5000m final, Yifter was boxed in during the last lap. But with 300m to go, his Ethiopian teammate, Mohamed Kedir, stepped aside and Yifter again sprinted to victory. Due to his abrupt change in speed when executing his kick to the finish, Yifter acquired the nickname "Yifter the Shifter."

At the Moscow Olympics, part of the mystery surrounding Yifter was the question of his age, which was reported to be between 33 and 42. Yifter refused to give a definitive answer, telling reporters: "Men may steal my chickens; men may steal my sheep. But no man can steal my age." The most common versions of his date of birth are 1 January 1938 or 15 May 1944.

To put all the legends into one race would make for a fascinating scenario. Kuts would have run hard from the gun, hoping to wear the field down. Viren would have put in withering mid race surges and then tried to go with a final sprint from 2 laps out. Zatopek would have waited until the bell before unleashing his withering sprint. Yifter, Bekele and Farah would have all gone with 300m to go and all were/are capable of a 54 sec last lap. But my money would be on Yifter.

2016 AUSTRALIAN RANKING LISTS - MEN

To finish off this week's newsletter, here are the top 25 ranked Australian walkers in each of the major race categories, as calculated in http://www.racewalkaustralia.com/. Obviously, not all the top walkers race the shorter distances like 1500m or 3000m but that gives the younger walkers a chance to shine. For all distances apart from the 1500m, the IAAF point score corresponding to each performance is also noted.
