ANNOUNCEMENT

I need to give some advance notice that I will be stepping down from all my racewalk administration activities in another 4 weeks, at the end of September 2021.

It was in April 2017 when the wider racewalking community became aware of a clique within the IAAF Race Walking Committee who were actively and secretly working towards the decommissioning of the 50km walk. Their efforts were already well advanced by the time a concerned insider within the IAAF leaked certain RWC minutes to me, confirming the process that was in train.

I stated at the time that when the 50km ceased to be an international walking distance, I would step away from the sport. Now that the final international 50km has been completed in Sapporo, I am honouring that promise.

I am proud that the racewalking community managed to get 3 extra years for our 50km walkers (the RWC clique had wanted to drop the 50km after the World Cup in April 2018). Further, due to the efforts of USA Attorney at Law Paul F. DeMeester, our women were even given the chance to compete internationally over 50km, albeit it against an IAAF that fought the process every step of the way. You can follow the process in its entirety at <https://www.vrwc.org.au/save-the-50km.shtml>.

The racewalking community owes Paul a huge debt for his support, both financial and legal.

My first racewalk was in a ¼ mile track race in September 1966. This month marks 55 years of involvement for me, first as a competitor and then as an administrator and general supporter.

From now on, I will restrict my activities to the ultra distance walking sphere and the world of the centurions, that group of walkers for whom 50km is not far enough!

I am currently discussing the future of this newsletter with VRWC President Stuart Cooper. It may be that someone will take it on. I will also be stepping back from the racewalkaustralia.com website which I currently administer and update each week.

I wish everyone the best in their future involvement in the sport of racewalking. The future is now up to you.

WHAT'S COMING UP

- With Victoria in lockdown at the moment, I do not expect any VRWC walks for the next few weeks. Stay tuned for further updates. NSW and ACT also remain in lockdown, so no results expected from NSWRC or ACTRC either for a while yet.

TWRC ROADWALKS, PONTVILLE PARK, HOBART, SATURDAY 28 AUGUST 2021

Thanks to Dave Moore for this week's results from Tasmania. He reports:

With not even a puff of wind and motionless clouds, conditions were ideal for some good performances from our walkers at Pontville today. Leading the way was Sam Lindsay with a PB for 3km at the 3km split and also for the 5km. Showing consistency in her performances was Lani Broad who equalled her PB for 3km, while Dave Moore also chipped in with a season best for his 3km.

2021 SUNSHINE COAST WINTER CARNIVAL, USC ATHLETICS TRACK, SIPPY DOWNS, SUNDAY 29 AUGUST 2021

There were actually two Queensland meets last weekend for the walkers. Robyn Wales has also sent me the results from the Sunshine Coast Winter carnival in Sippy Downs. Her comment: We have nothing for weeks and then 2 on the same day! It's happening again at the end of September when the ANQ Championships are on in Townsville and LAQ has a meet at Bundaberg

24 HEURES DE BONHEUR, VILLENAVE D'ORNON, FRANCE, 28-29 AUGUST 2021

Delving now into the long distance walking world, the annual 24 Heures de Bonheur was contested last weekend in the Bordeaux suburb of Villenave d'Ornon. It is a very large ultra, with 40 walkers, 146 runners and quite a few relay teams contesting the various divisions. The races were contested over a 1km+ lap, which included a section on the local athletics track. Gilles Letessier (168.082km in 24H) and Alexandre Cros (90.206km in 12H) were the walking standouts.

2021 PARIS-ALSACE CLASSIC, FRANCE, 25-28 AUGUST 2021

The organising committee of the Paris-Alsace Classic had to make the hard decision in 2021 to reduce the scope of this annual ultrawalk classic, restricting it to two race categories, organised in 5 stages and spread over 4 days. The race breakup looked like this:

La Mythique (292.7km)

Wednesday 25 August: 12.0 km prologue in Château-Thierry, followed by a 34.8km stage around Château-Thierry.
 Thursday 26 August: 88.5 km stage from from Châlons en Champagne to reach Vitry le François
 Friday 27 August: 94.3 km stage from Neufchâteau to Epinal
 Saturday August 28: 61.1 km stage from Plainfaing, to Kaysersberg-Vignoble

La Nocéenne (207.8km)

Wednesday August 25 9.0 km prologue in Château-Thierry, followed by a 34.8km stage around Château-Thierry.
Thursday August 26: 51.2 km stage from Châlons en Champagne to Vitry le François
Friday August 27: 51.7 km stage from Gironcourt sur Vraine to Epinal
Saturday August 28: 61.1 km stage from Plainfaing, to Kaysersberg-Vignoble

All walkers had to have a support team in attendance, with an accompanying car or a campervan. The last day was definitely the toughest, with the 61.1km route from Plainfaing crossing the Col du Bonhomme and the Col du Calvaire, then looping through the Collet des Linges before returning to Orbey and finally arriving at Kaysersberg-Vignoble in the late afternoon.

In La Mythique, French walker Florian Letourneau was an easy winner by over 6 hours, covering the 292.7km in 34 hours 52 minutes and 52 secs, for an average speed of 8.39km/hr. La Nocéenne was a much closer affair, with only 3 minutes separating Frenchman Mathieu Olivares and American Erin Talcott, with both covering the 207.8km in a little over 25 hours. Emmanuel Tardi was helping Erin as part of her crew and I was able to follow Erin's progress via facebook. Erin was sick on the first day and so had to start off very conservatively, but she came back strongly and make a race of it, easily winning the final 2 stages and just failing to take the overall win by the smallest of margins. And a special mention to 80 year old Robert Daloz who finished La Nocéenne in 29 hours 38 minutes and 47 secs.

Here are the final results
