 WALKER OF THE WEEK **

Two massive PB performances in last weekend's 10km points race made awarding this week's WOTW pretty easy, with the only issue being how to split them and, in the end, not bothering. They both earned it.

Geromi Tucker (an 11:21 PB for 53:09) and Kate Siviour (53:10 from a 5:38 PB) each ventured far into unknown territory with their improvement, regardless of comparative size of their margins, and it can be said that each is now a different walker from when they toed the start line. With many more races ahead this season, the scope is there to cut their times even further over a range of distances.

Congratulations Geromi and Kate ... we look forward to watching your further progress!

*Honourable mentions

- Levi Robertson (VIC) – a PB by over a minute in the 1.5km for his 8:27
- Emily Smith (VIC) – walked a focused, determined race for a 2min PB in the 10km, recording 56:48
- Eden Morgan (VIC) – overall 10km race winner with 1:56 PB time of 51:33.

CLUB NEWS and RESULTS

VRWC Club points races #4, Saturday 4 June – Middle Park

Underway at Middle Park – all keen to stay warm!

As expected, conditions were cold and breezy for our last meeting before Canberra. Luckily the showers stayed away, making things more agreeable for all concerned. There were a number of impressive performances including some big PBs.

The 10km race produced the day's best results, with Eden Morgan taking line honours in emphatic style with 51:33. Geromi Tucker, in his first road season, produced an eye-opener with a massive 11:21 PB to record 53:09, just holding off a fast-finishing Kate Siviour who belted her own previous best out of the park for 53:10. Emily Smith earned the reward for a lot of hard work for her 56:48, while Alejandro Stephens's 58:32 was another PB marker as he builds his racing condition over the middle distances.

Madeleine Feain and Kevin Cassidy went the full 12km in good warm-ups before tackling the 15km on the Mt Stromlo circuit next Sunday.

The 5km saw Jade Chitty grab a slice of the PB pie with her handicap-winning 27:37, while Marcus Wakim easily clocked the fastest time with 22:33.

Levi Robertson had the best of the shorter distance results, clocking an excellent 1:15 PB for his 1.5km handicap win in 8:27. Jaida Robertson and Zoe Bowkett cut their times further, and it was good to see Zoe's sister Lily having her first race with us.

We were also pleased to welcome Dawn Bennett (Ralph's wife) out onto the course. Dawn and Ralph will both be tackling the Fitness 8km in Canberra. (You'll still need to rug up, I fancy!)

The 3km saw Riley Coughlan zip around in a quick 13:53, joining Kylie Irshad as handicap winners. Meanwhile, Beau McKinnon's first race over the distance produced a pleasing first-up 18:45.

Robyn Wales reports from the Gold Coast:

Yesterday was a warm winter's day with no wind and a beautiful 22°.

The Gold Coast Road Walking Championship is a keenly contested event and we keep event records. The event is “age on the day” and distances similar to LBG for the junior athletes.

7yr old Freya Williams set a new U8 girls' 500m record with a quick 2.42 taking around 30 seconds off the previous record.

We welcomed Brooke and Amelia Newberry who travelled from the freezing cold hamlet of Guyra just over the border in NSW on the New England Highway.

We didn't have quite enough medals but tubes of M&Ms proved popular instead for some winners!

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

FRANCE: Paris-Alsace 2022 Ultra distance walk, 31 May-4 June – Paris to Alsace region

Emmanuel Tardi reports on the latest edition of this, arguably the most prestigious of ultra walking competitions. Starting out as the Strasbourg-Paris, then Paris-Strasbourg, it has had a number of incarnations since 1981 when it became Paris-Colmar, then Paris-Ribeauville in 2015. To be honest, it's hard to imagine anyone who contests it caring too much what it's called by the end ... they'd have their own (probably unprintable) name for it!

Last week the famous Paris-Alsace ultra racewalking stage event was held
3 races were scheduled:

La Mythique - 402,5km

- 1^{ère} Stage : 31/05/2022 Disneyland 15km
- 2^{ème} Stage : 01/06/2022 Château-Thierry – Vitry-le-François 212,6km
- 3^{ème} Stage : 03/06/2022 Neufchateau – Epinal 114,4km
- 4^{ème} Stage : 04/06/2022 Plainfaing – Kayzersberg 60,5km

La Vosgéenne - 312,8km

- 1^{ère} Stage : 31/05/2022 Disneyland 15km
- 2^{ème} Stage : 01/06/2022 Château-Thierry – Vitry-le-François 178,9km
- 3^{ème} Stage : 03/06/2022 Gironcourt – Epinal 58,4km
- 4^{ème} Stage : 04/06/2022 Plainfaing – Kayzersberg 60,5km

La Castèle - 225,5km

- 1^{ère} Stage : 31/05/2022 Disneyland 15km
- 2^{ème} Stage : 01/06/2022 Château-Thierry – Château-Thierry 34,8km
- 3^{ème} Stage : 02/06/2022 Chalons-en-Champagne – Vitry-le-François 56,8km
- 4^{ème} Stage : 03/06/2022 Gironcourt – Epinal 58,4km
- 5^{ème} Stage : 04/06/2022 Plainfaing – Kayzersberg 60,5km

On the main event (La Mythique), it was a big battle during 4 days between Florian Letourneau, 2021 winner, and Maxime Laneau.

Friday, Maxime Laneau was still the leader until 20km before Epinal, but lost 25' in the last part of the stage.

Saturday, for the last stage, he was very tired and lost more than one hour.

In the others races, Gildas Gros and Christophe Erard won easily.

Special mention for Robert Daloz who finished La Castèle at age of 81.
